EPISODE 1 – WE ARE GOING TO ENTERTAIN YOU

We are going to entertain you, Dear Ones, with thrilling stories of our beginnings, our middle and our projected end, which will delight those of you who may be weary of the hardship of being human.

However, Dear Hearts, those stories are for another day. Today we would ask for your patience. And why do we ask for your patience? We ask for your patience, Dear Ones, because it will be patience that will see you through. See you through? Yes indeed, Dear Hearts, you will need patience and endurance if you want to see the benefit of our teachings within your life.

When first we began our website ABC of Spirit Talk we spoke our wisdom through Animal Reflections. You may care to visit and utilise the teachings written in our Animal Reflections. They speak of many understandings that have been invaluable to our dearest Carolyn and, dare we say, many others.

These were gentle times, Dear Ones, when the world was new and blogging was a triumph. However, we then asked our dearest to post more in-depth understandings of our lives as consciousness. Indeed, this is when life, for our dearest, began to become a little scary.

You see, Dear Hearts, our dearest wanted to be as many others. She wanted to write about the gentler subjects of life. Subjects that would enthrall, entertain, and bring hope to those who read her posts and listened to her words.

But, no, Dear Ones, we did not want our dearest to do that; and this was not the intention of her soul. No indeed not.

Her soul agreed to do the majority's bidding. And what was the majority's bidding? The majority's bidding, Dear Hearts, was to bring an end to the myths perpetrating upon the mind of man.

You see, Dear Ones, it is time to bring an end to the untruths abounding upon the Earth Fantasy. Our dearest's work is to assist in this happening. It is with delight and a little apprehension that, once again, our dearest shares with you the truth of our lives as consciousness.

This will bring great satisfaction to some, anger to others, and confusion and bewilderment to still others. However, it is time for the truth to become the norm. Our dearest will indeed allow the truth to permeate those quarters open to truth.

May we share with you, Dear Heart, the truth of our beginnings? It was not the heartfelt trappings that some would have you believe. There are no harps playing; no angels singing. No, Dear Ones, our beginnings were quite the reverse of the myths we have perpetrated upon you. And for what reason have we perpetrated these myths? The reason being, Dear Ones, for you to have an experience. An experience unlike any experience; an experience that would bring you closer to the truth of our beginning, which was not unlike the experience of the fantasy you are experiencing now.

Yes indeed, Dear Hearts, you are experiencing a fantasy; a mind fantasy; a fantasy created by your soul, or consciousness. This particular fantasy is one where the mind of man has been created to bring havoc to bear. This has been its duty thus far. However, for those who have the bravery to excel, will light the way out of the darkness into the light. And what shall that light look like? It will shine upon the new path for the Earth Fantasy; one that shall be free of the sickness of mind and disease of body.

We invite you to join us as we shine that light upon our past and our future as we portray our lives as consciousness upon this new journey of podcasting.

Many Blessings, Dear One. Many Blessings to All

EPIISODE 2 – WE ARE CONSCIOUSNESS

We would like to introduce you to our Earth Medium Carolyn Page who will guide you through the process of freedom from fear. We have much to say, as does our dearest Carolyn. May you join us in the journey your soul has intended for you.

And so, where shall we go from here, dearest? Shall we jump into the deep end, or shall we play it safe in the shallows?

I do believe I'd rather jump into the deep end. The shallows can become quite boring!

Indeed, we agree. And what shall we find at the deep end – mysteries, fantasies, untruths? Indeed, Dear Ones, untruths abound within the Earth Fantasy; for, and this is the conundrum for many – this is as we have planned it to be.

And who are we?

This is a simple question with a simple answer.

You, Dear Heart, listening to or reading our tale, and our dearest Carolyn, and the majority of souls who agreed upon the values to be included for the Earth Fantasy.

Imagine a group of individuals sitting about bored out of their minds. This is easy to do, Dear Ones, because, in the main this is exactly what man does. He sits about bored waiting for something to take his attention and free him from his boredom. Yes? Yes indeed, Dear Hearts, this is precisely what occurs for most.

With this image in mind, now imagine those sitting about are souls, or consciousnesses. This isn't quite as easy to achieve because souls or consciousnesses do not have a body. Consciousness is a thought. Souls are souls, or body less.

However, with this concept in mind we ask that you imagine a group, a very large group of souls sitting about bored. One suggests another fantasy in which they could play. Have we advised that there are a multitude of fantasies in which to play?

Yes, I do believe you advised of that in our previous episode.

Good, this is good, dearest. It must not be understated that the Earth Experience is only one of a multitude of experiences we enjoy. Back to our story, dearest.

We have a group, a very large group of souls, or consciousness sitting about bored. One suggests creating a fantasy that resembled our earliest beginnings.

Now, imagine a cry of – “Oh no. Why would we want to do that?”

To get the full gist of our imaginings you must realise, Dear Ones, that we can't go for a walk. Indeed not, legs are needed for that. We can't pick up a tennis racket and ball and start a match. No, Dear Hearts, one needs a tennis court upon which to play; and, of course, one needs a body for such entertainment.

So, what do a group, a very large group of souls do to entertain themselves?

That's right. They imagine; they use their mental apparatus to create a dream, or a fantasy into which to place themselves so as they can enjoy walking and play tennis. Yes indeed.

And this, you and I and Carolyn and a host of souls have done and have been doing for millennia, Dear Ones, yes indeed.

However, up to this point the imaginings or fantasies have all been whimsical, wonderful; full of light and hope and all things good. Ahhhhhh... They assuaged our need for comfort, and our wellbeing triumphed throughout.

However, this suggestion of creating a fantasy in which to play that resembled our earliest beginnings was abominable to most... The outcry was fantastic.

Then a remarkable thing began to happen. There began a petition of sorts, a mental petition you appreciate, to indeed create such a fantasy.

And this, in a nutshell, Dear Ones, was the beginning of the Earth Fantasy, or experience.

And do you remember from our first episode the nature of the Earth Fantasy that we created? That's right, Dear One. The Earth Fantasy was created in the dread and hunger and downright nastiness we experienced in the beginning.

Yes, Dear Hearts, we created a fantasy into which we could project our thoughts that would bring fear and dread to shine. We say 'shine', Dear Hearts with simple projection of delirium. That is to say: It would only be seen in this light were we to be of simple mind.

Who, in their right mind would project themselves into such a place of negativity and darkness?

You would, Dear One. Yes, that's right; you and I and Carolyn and the multitude of souls experiencing the Earth Fantasy. Why do we do this?

We do this for many and varied reasons, Dear Heart. We shall begin writing and talking about the reasons within our next episode.

Many Blessings, Dear Heart. Many Blessings to All

EPISODE 3 – WHY DO WE PROJECT INTO NEGATIVITY?

Indeed, Dear Ones, as promised we shall write about, and our dearest Carolyn shall speak about why we project ourselves into a fantasy that guarantees negativity as its basis.

Yes indeed, Dear Hearts, this is what we do and have been doing for millennia.

We project our thoughts, our communal thoughts, our complex thoughts, our ordered thoughts, our joint effort, one may say, into a concerted, orchestrated and defined intermingling that creates whatever was our envisaged agreement.

And this we do for all the fantasies we have created for our enjoyment.

Did we say 'enjoyment'?

Indeed we did, Dear Hearts, indeed we did.

Do you not think that we, you and I and Carolyn and all that you see would not enjoy our creations?

On the surface, Dear Ones, this may appear to be the truth of the matter; and previous to the creation of the Earth Fantasy, or experience, this was certainly the truth.

We created worlds of magical experiences; full of joy and wondrous happenings where we could, within a physical form of a type, enjoy the delights of touch, movement, such as flying, sensuous feelings of lust and all physical freedoms.

We must remind you, Dear Heart, that as a consciousness we are body less. That's right, Dear One, we do not have a body. Therefore, we created imaginings, or fantasies that are dreamlike to us where we can, to an extent, enjoy physical matter. Think upon this and you may be able to imagine our true state of being, and why we enjoy our projections.

Consciousness equates to thinking. Yes, being conscious equates to the ability to think. Thinking is a wonderful pastime. However, it is limited in the sense that it cannot produce a physical reality, only a mental reality.

We, over time, began to appreciate the need for creating physical realities where we could, in a pseudo fashion, enjoy the dreamlike reality of a physical expression. And this is precisely what the majority agreed upon.

From that moment forward we put our heads together, so to speak, and formulated the plan. And what was that plan?

The plan, Dear Hearts, was to create a pseudo experience or experiences that would, for all intent and purpose be a true experience for the experiencer.

The ultimate goal, Dear Ones, was to create pseudo experiences that to the experiencer would be beyond question as to its truth. And in this we are and have been enormously successful.

However, back to the original intent of this episode, which was to inform you, Dear Heart, of why we project ourselves into a fantasy of negativity. Indeed, why?

This we do for many reasons, Dear One. Firstly, it was suggested that we needed a fantasy into which to project ourselves in order that we never forget our beginnings of angst, fear, isolation and separation.

Yes indeed, Dear Heart; our beginnings were abominable, to put it gently.

Indeed, many did not survive. Many chose to remain isolated and miserable. This is certain death to a consciousness. Indeed, many continue to isolate and remain in abject misery. However, this tale is for another day!

Did we say that life for us in the beginning was abominable? Yes indeed we did, Dear Heart, indeed we did.

And, just as you within the fantasy have created times of remembrance, so too did we. As above, so below. Yes, Dear One, much of what you create is a parody as our lives as consciousness; another aspect of the Earth Fantasy to mimic our earliest beginnings.

Every soul who has ever and is now within the Fantasy is recreating an aspect of our earliest beginnings.

There are those here within the Fantasy for the purpose of overcoming our innate negativity. Oh yes, Dear Hearts, our core is one of great negativity; this being the reason behind all fantasies; to circumnavigate and keep at bay our innate core of negativity.

Did we not say, Dear One, that we are here to dispel all myths? Indeed we did. And our dearest Carolyn has agreed to be our channel for the truths to become the norm.

Our core, Dear Hearts, is one of great negativity. Those of us who choose to exist in comfort and with love to guide us enjoy the remembrance to be gained within the Earth Fantasy. Those of us who, at first were repelled by the idea of such a fantasy now enjoy each and every experience we share. The Earth Fantasy has become a much loved and welcomed aspect of our lives as consciousness. That is; those of us who have overcome our innate core enjoy our time, so called, within the Fantasy.

Not quite so for those who have yet to fully overcome. They, those who have yet to fully overcome their innate core of negativity can be seen in those arenas of life where hardship, death and destruction are the norm. Yes, Dear Brave Hearts, negative experiences are the means to eventually overcome our innate negativity.

This seems a contradiction. Does it not?

Yes indeed, Dear Ones, a contradiction it does appear to be. Yet, we have over and over again proved that by experiencing negativity, gives the opportunity for a successful end. The successful end is one that proves itself valuable in the extreme. Opportunities to overcome abound when we experience a negative state. We can either swim, as the saying goes; or we can sink. And sink we do many times over.

Slowly, though, success dawns and we become free of the core of negativity that we are all subject to. You may even now be overcoming a negative state in your life.

However, Dear Hearts, we do not wish to confuse. Should you be reading and or listening to our podcast it will only be because you are one of those within the fantasy to create love and freedom from fear. Yes, Dear One, you will be as one here to raise the vibrations by slowly and circumspectly perfecting yourself. And what do we mean by perfecting yourself? We do not speak of a physical perfection; no, Dear Heart. We speak of a mental perfection that creates freedom from fear. This is the perfection of which we speak. Freedom from fear is your goal. This can only be achieved by experiencing negative conditions and overcoming them.

And this, Dear One, is precisely what you and I and Carolyn have done many times over. We have experienced negative experiences, and we have overcome. A parody, as we have said, of our earliest beginnings.

We shall leave this here, Dear Heart, and continue this subject in our next episode.

Many Blessings, Dear Heart. Many Blessings to All

EPISODE 4 – PUT US TO THE TEST

We have spoken regarding those here to overcome their innate core of negativity. They, Dear Hearts, are gallant souls who, for the purpose of their progress toward perfection, continue to do as their soul desires.

Perfection for us, Dear Ones, as consciousness is a great effort that the majority engage in. It takes millennia, as you understand it, to finally achieve success.

Can you appreciate, therefore, the numbers of, so called, life experiences within the Earth experience that are necessary in order for perfection to be gained? That's right, Dear Heart; it takes many thousand experiences for this grand effort to achieve the desired effect.

And this, Dear One, brings us to you. Yes, you, Dear Heart.

You, listening and or reading our words have been within the Earth experience many thousands of times. And you, Dear One, are one who has achieved perfection as a consciousness.

That is: You have acquired, through many thousands of life experiences within the Earth Fantasy to finally achieve that all-encompassing ability to nullify our innate core of negativity.

We say 'nullify', Dear Heart, because we can never fully obliterate our innate core of negativity. However, what we do achieve is the ability to calm our innate core by circumnavigating those primal instincts of fear.

This we do, Dear Ones, by continually placing ourselves into positions that guarantee our continued success. And how do we achieve this state?

We achieve this state of being by continually remaining in a positive mind frame. And how do we achieve this positive mind frame?

Another easy question with a simple answer.

We achieve this state of being by remaining with like-minded souls who know that by being united with others whose goal is to remain alive (so called) and well (we put this simply, Dear Ones) there is the need to pursue our goal with gusto. And what does 'gusto' look like?

Look about you, Dear Heart. Look about you at those with whom you are experiencing; yes, that's right. It is a simple equation we have followed for millennia; an equation that, if followed, guarantees success.

We keep doing what we have been doing.

That's right, Dear One. When you know what works and you stick to it, success is guaranteed.

Can you now appreciate our simple words of truth? Can you appreciate that you have been successful in your quest? Can you fully appreciate that to remain successful you must continue doing as you have been doing for millennia?

No, Dear Heart, we do not expect you to answer each question in the affirmative. Truth is truth is truth. And yet, Dear One, it will take much pondering before you can answer.

Put us to the test.

Ask that we, your soul, Carolyn and I assist in the process of realising who you are. That's right. Put us to the test.

Ask us, your soul, Carolyn and I (the representative of the Collective Consciousness) to assist you in realising the full extent of your purpose. That's right.

Ask; and if your desire is truly to appreciate who you are and why you are here within the fantasy, then it shall be yours, Dear One.

We look forward to hearing your inner words. That's right, Dear Heart. You need only speak these words within your mind. We shall hear you, and we shall act upon them.

Many Blessings, Dear Heart. Many Blessings to All

EPISODE 5 – REMAIN CALM LEST WE FORGET

We are putting pen to paper again, Dear Ones, to impress upon you the need for calm. It is 'calm' that will see you through. And what will it see you through?

Calm will see you through all things, Dear Hearts. Our Carolyn knows this is true. Do you not, dearest?

Yes, this is true.

And why is this, dearest?

It is true because, from my experience within the Earth experience, I have had to manufacture calm in order to 'get through'.

Get through, dearest?

Yes, get through. You see life for me was rather difficult. I know now that my life is and was a copy of the plan I agreed to. However, that doesn't nullify the devastation that I felt as I was experiencing various aspects of my experience.

You had many devastating events, dearest?

Devastating for me, yes. To another my life may seem like an easy road to have travelled. However, this is all subjective. And because I have only lived my life I can only feel subjective about it.

And this is precisely the point we make, dearest. To you your life, or experience, has been devastating, at times; so too for each and every soul experiencing upon the Earth experience.

As we have said, dearest:

The Earth Fantasy, or experience, is one that we created in order to remember. And what did we want to remember?

We wanted to remember our earliest beginnings. And what were our earliest beginnings?

Our earliest beginnings were of angst and fear, isolation and separation.

Are we making ourselves clear, Dear Hearts? Are you beginning to appreciate the premise for the Earth Fantasy? Are you aware that each and every soul experiencing alongside you is experiencing their own set of values? Values that may be devastating to them; however, not so devastating to you.

The Earth experience is a subjective experience. Not unlike the virtual realities now available through the many forms of technological advancements upon your computer screens, etc.

Yes, Dear Hearts; the Earth experience is not for the feint hearted. It takes a brave heart to allow this fantasy into your soul's journey. However, to do so brings great rewards. Rewards such as cannot be obtained within the multitude of fantasies we have created for our enjoyment. Only this experience, the Earth experience is one where you are put to the test, so to speak. And what are the tests we speak of?

Tests such as violence, debauchery, malice, greed, etc.; you get the point, Dear One.

Yes, it is here that you experience those events and happenings that challenge you to bring out all the guns, so to speak, at your command.

Guns such as:

The ability to utilise the very commands you have already acquired as a soul in the earliest beginnings.

Yes, Dear Heart, it is those abilities you use to overcome the hazardous events and happenings you agreed to encounter during your fantasy here in the Earth experience.

You need not be concerned, Dear One. Your soul is projecting the thoughts, along with the multitude, to ensure that you experience those happenings agreed to.

Also know, Dear Heart, that your soul remains unscathed. It cannot be altered, Dear One, by your actions. The only possible manner in which your soul can be harmed – and this, Dear Heart, is death by isolation.

Indeed, many still today, as consciousness, choose willingly to isolate: As above, so below.

Yes, Dear One, isolation is death to a consciousness whether as a soul or as a human. Once again: As above, so below.

Remember that you are here to experience our earliest beginnings of angst and fear, isolation and separation. This will almost guarantee success. We say 'almost', Dear Heart, because there are many such as you and I and Carolyn who, by poor choices, naivety and lack of bravery die due to these few reasons.

We are here within the Fantasy to remember. With this in mind, Dear Heart, you will keep your goal in mind.

And what is your goal?

Another easy question with a simple answer.

Lest we forget!

Many Blessings, Dear Heart. Many Blessings to All
